SKILLS

LEADERSHIP

Being a good leader is knowing who to hire and bring on the team. Jessica has interviewed, hired, managed, led, trained her team and provided feedback on effectiveness and productivity in her roles as a project manager and consultant.

COACHING

She trains and coaches growing business owners on mindset, productivity, systematization and automation. She's experienced working with people dealing with trauma, disabilities, people of different cultures, age and gender.

ENTREPRENEURSHIP

3+ years of street experience turning no's into yes's, being in the spotlight, learning and deciding on the spot. As an entrepreneur, she's a forward-thinking instigator, preemptive problem solver and an action taker.
